ASQ AROUND THE WORLD

The 2nd Invitational Symposium of International ASQ Researchers

Monday, June 6, 2016, 4:00 p.m.–7:30 p.m.
Tuesday, June 7, 2016, 8:00 a.m.–5:30 p.m.

DESCRIPTION

As with the first international meeting, this gathering will provide the opportunity to meet with people who are engaged in work with the Ages & Stages Questionnaires (ASQ) and the Ages & Stages Questionnaires: Social-Emotional (ASQ:SE). Come to share in research being conducted around the world and to gain valuable insights into using the ASQ tools to improve the lives of children and families everywhere. The ASQ developers will also review the new features of the ASQ:SE-2, published in September 2015. Come spend two days together to learn from each other about the research and science behind the international use of ASQ-3™ and ASQ:SE-2. Be a part of advancing the implementation of the ASQ tools to improve the lives of children and families everywhere!

WHO IS INVITED

This is a by-invitation-only forum for the professional exchange of research and experience. Invitations are being extended to researchers, practitioners, and their affiliated publishers currently working on ASQ-3 and/or ASQ:SE-2 in countries around the globe, including Australia, Brazil, Canada, Chile, China, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Israel, Italy, Japan, Korea, Kuwait, Malaysia, the Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Switzerland, Thailand, Turkey, the United Kingdom, and the United States.

Our intent is to gather a small group of 25–35 to allow for in-depth conversation and one-on-one exchange in addition to prepared presentations.
