

2017 Summary Report

Training of Trainers Institutes

TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES

There were 3 institutes held in 2017. Each 3-day ASQ Training of Trainers Institute was sold out and had over 60 attendees per event.

April 4-6
 Las Vegas, NV

June 21-23
 Bloomington, MN

August 14-16
 Towson, MD

The ASQ Training of Trainers Institute provided participants with everything needed to instruct their colleagues in using the ASQ-3 and ASQ:SE-2 screening tools.

Implement ASQ-3 and ASQ:SE-2

Score questionnaires

Interpret results

Understand the referral process

Work with families from diverse backgrounds

Teach others in your organization how to use ASQ

SKILLS & TESTIMONIALS

See what a few attendees had to say about the skills gained over the course of the training.

COLLABORATION

"I liked the interactions with other professionals in other programs and the different breakout sessions to learn the material."

—Angela Tyler, Lead Home Visitor, Early Head Start at CHOP, PA

KNOWLEDGE EXPANSION

"Comprehensive, interactive, engaging, challenging, and practical. [The] process of reviewing results offers a natural progression into deepening connections [and] building relationships with families."

—Kim Whittaker, Clinical Nurse Educator, Fraser Health, BC, Canada

THOUGHT PROVOCATION

"I liked the fact that you gave suggestions to make [our future] trainings more interactive and engaging for the participants. You modeled how to incorporate these techniques."

—Jamie Walko, Technical Assistant, J. Walko Educational Services, DE

DIVERSE INSTRUCTION

"This seminar helps to [screen] kiddos in multiple areas—the training would benefit those working with children in all different capacities."

—Shannaria Morton, Special Education Instructional Assistant, Muckleshoot Early Learning Academy, WA

OVERALL COMPREHENSION

"Very informative and helpful for those who are new to ASQ or as a refresher for those who have used ASQ for a while."

—Elora Barba, Health & Nutrition Manager, Peninsula Family Services, CA

REASONS TO ATTEND

There are many reasons to attend an ASQ Institute, but here are some of the most popular responses.

Network with other early childhood professionals

Expand knowledge of ASQ-3 and ASQ:SE-2

Meet and learn from ASQ expert trainers

Gain techniques and materials to conduct trainings

MEET THE TRAINERS

Institute trainers are people who have been involved in the authorship, development, and/or research of the ASQ-3 and/or the ASQ:SE-2.

Elizabeth Twombly, M.S.

- Senior Researcher and Instructor in the Early Intervention Program at the University of Oregon
- Over 20 years of involvement in ASQ research projects, including renorming for the ASQ:SE-2 and the ASQ-3
- Provides trainings on ASQ nationally and internationally, and has provided technical assistance to states on the development of early identification and referral systems for young children

Jantina Clifford, Ph.D.

- Faculty member at the University of Oregon Early Intervention Program
- She teaches graduate courses in early intervention and early childhood special education
- Provides training internationally on the ASQ-3, ASQ:SE-2, and SEAM screening and assessment tools

LaWanda Potter, M.S.

- Administrator for EC CARES, an early intervention/early childhood special education program in Oregon
- Received her master's degree in child development and family studies from Purdue University
- Involvement with several research studies on ASQ, including questionnaire revisions, data analysis, and documentation. She has also provided outreach training on ASQ across the United States

Jane Farrell, M.S.

- Early Intervention/Early Childhood Special Education Specialist for EC CARES in Lane County, Oregon
- Received her master's degree from the University of Oregon Early Intervention Program
- The original ASQ Outreach Project Coordinator, providing training and consultation on systematic use of the ASQ in 25 states

SURVEY SAYS

At the conclusion of each institute, attendees were asked to provide their open and honest feedback about the seminar. The results speak for themselves.

THE CONTENT

Were you provided with all the information needed to provide ASQ training to your organization?

THE MATERIALS

Will the training materials be useful to you after the seminar?

OVERALL TRAINING

Would you recommend this seminar to others?

FUTURE TRAININGS

Four institutes are planned for 2018. For more information and to stay up-to-date on future events, please visit <http://bit.ly/ASQ-Institutes-2018>.

The 2018

Training of Trainers Institutes

- April 16–18 in Longboat Key, FL
- June 18–20 in Denver, CO
- August 20–22 in Rosemont, IL
- October 1–3 in Seattle, WA

ASQ Online Hands-On Learning Sessions

For the first time, we are offering an additional day of training geared specifically towards customers using ASQ Online!

In a hands-on, activity-driven format, this full-day session will cover how to:

- set up an account
- manage participant data
- manage screenings
- communicate with families
- use Family Access
- use reports
- use support

Space is limited. Registration is only available for 2018 ASQ Training Institute attendees.

NEW